US BUILDERS REVIEW NAMES BERGERON LAND DEVELOPMENT A 2016 BEST OF THE UNITED STATES HONOREE

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. – Bergeron Land Development has announced it was named a 2016 Best of the United States honoree by US Builders Review for its commitment to success, employee satisfaction and superior products and services.

Since 2013, US Builders Review has recognized construction and building companies from across the country through the annual Best of the United States awards. This year, 66 companies were selected from nearly 700 eligible featured businesses for the 2016 Best of the United States honor due in large part to their industry contributions and forward-thinking nature.

“We are proud and humbled to be named among the Best of the United States honorees by such a prestigious entity at US Builders Review,” said President J.R. Bergeron. “My father and Bergeron founder, “Alligator” Ron Bergeron is known for the importance he places on credibility and integrity and we have been guided by that principle for the past 52 years. So, although I can say that the quality of our work and client satisfaction is enough for us, it is great motivation for our team to be recognized in such a public forum.
